Miss Annie Hegeman is entertaining at a tea this afternoon in the garden of her home at 1800 I street in compliment to the members of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association. Receiving with Miss Hegeman will be Mrs. David F. Houston, wife of the Secretary of Agriculture, and honorary president of the association, and Mrs. Francis King, president. Mrs. Calderon Carlsie and Mrs. Henry Marquard will preside at the tea table.

MISS WASHINGTON A BRIDE

Weds Owen Batchelder Lewis, of Philadelphia, at St. Mark's. Spring blossoms in pink and white, against a background of palms and ferns, decorated St. Mark's Church for the marriage last evening of Miss Frances Jacqueline Washington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Washington, of Philadelphia.

Easter lilies banded the chancel and filled the altar vases and graceful clusters of the same flowers tied with fluffy bows of tulle, marked the pews reserved for relatives.

The ceremony was performed by the Rt. Rev. Beverly Tucker, bishop of Virginia, assisted by the Rev. Dr. C. R. Stetson, rector of St. Mark's, and the Rev. Dr. Berryman Green, dean of the Theological Seminary. Miss Patty Washington was her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Louise F. Washington, another sister; Miss Irma Lewis, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Patty Braxton, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Miss Eloise Beckwith, and Miss Dorothy Thompson, of Charles Town, W. Va.; Miss Martha Rader, of Lewisburg, W.

Va., Miss Mary Watkins, and Miss Sade Styron, both of Washington. Percy Brown, of Philadelphia, acted as best man for Mr. Lewis, and the ushers were the bride's brother, Selden Washington; Beaman Neale, Junius Powell, and Stuart Moore, of Washington; Herbert Tucker, of Lynchburg, Va.; Jack Cooper, of Philadelphia, and George Falson.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of heavy white bridal satin made with a long court train and embroidered in pearls. The bodice was composed of rose point lace with long sleeves of tulle finished with pearl embroidery. Her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and bride roses.

The maid of honor was gowned in pink satin combined with georgette crepe heavily beaded in pink. She carried a shower bouquet of pink and white sweet peas. The bridesmaids wore dainty flounced frocks of white organza made with bodices of apple green satin. Their bouquets were of pink sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will live in Baltimore.

The president and the faculty of the Von Unschuld University entertained today at luncheon at the Raleigh Hotel, the national president of the National Mothers' Congress, Mrs. Frederick Schöff, the vice president, Mrs. Milton F. Hixson, the president of the local chapter, Mrs. Gilles Rafter, and other guests.

The members of the Lotus Club, composed of graduates of Washington high schools and young business men, will be hosts at a dance Saturday evening at 9 o'clock at Mrs. Dyer's, 1517 R street.

Redfield Entertains.

The Secretary of Commerce, Mr. Redfield, had guests, luncheon with him at the Shoreham yesterday, Mrs.

Redfield entertaining a party of ladies at another table. Others who had guests for luncheon at the Shoreham were Mrs. James Hamilton Lewis, Mrs. John K. Shields, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bonaparte.

Mrs. Lamas Honored.

A delightful reception was given yesterday afternoon at the Club of Colonial Dames in compliment to Mrs. Joseph Rucker Lamar, national president of the Colonial Dames, and the State presidents and delegates who are attending the annual meeting of the executive board of the National Society of Colonial Dames of America. Owing to the amount of business which must be transacted in the two days of the meeting there has been little other entertaining for the delegates.

Mrs. Samuel Spencer, president of the Club of Colonial Dames, received at the tea yesterday, assisted by members of the board of governors, Mrs. Thomas Hardy Tallaferra, hostess for the afternoon, and Mrs. Richard Ewell Thornton, chairman of the house committee. Mrs. James Carroll Frazer and Mrs. Hughes Oliphant presided at the tea table.

Invitations have been received here for the marriage of Miss Louise Clabey Wise, daughter of Mrs. Jessie Kennan Wise, to Lawrence Lewis, on Thursday, May 3, at 5 o'clock in the Wise home in Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Wise is a niece of Mrs. Birmingham, formerly Mrs. Henry M. Flagler. Mr. Lewis, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Lewis, of White Sulphur Springs and Cincinnati, is a grandnephew of former President Benjamin Harrison.

The delegates to the Mothers' Congress now meeting in Washington were the guests of honor at a reception given yesterday afternoon by the students of the National School of Domestic Arts and Sciences. The guests were received by the principal, Miss Zurborot, and the members of the faculty, assisted by the young ladies. After inspecting specimens of the work done by the students, refreshments were served in the various tea rooms maintained by the school, and a short harp and violin recital was given in their honor.

The marriage of Miss Lertice Lee Clark, of Mobile, Ala., and Frank H. Lyon, of Clarksburg, W. Va., took place yesterday at Warrenton, Va., at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Douglas. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. G. Pendleton, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, Warrenton. Lyon, brother of the groom, was best man.

We Shampoo Your Rugs

The New Application of an Old Principle

THE ELITE PROCESS

TRY THIS BETTER PROCESS...

FOUR years ago, in keeping with our progressive methods, we established a department for the cleaning of ORIENTAL RUGS AND CARPETS.

Not contented with the then prevalent methods of cleansing, or the results obtained, we studied and experimented assiduously to devise and develop a better method that would not alone remove the dirt, but restore all the luster and beauty of the original colors as well.

Patience and perseverance have resulted in a perfected, altogether new way of renovating used carpets and rugs—the exclusive WASHINGTON ELITE LAUNDRY SHAMPOO PROCESS.

By this process (which is entirely by hand) every particle of dirt is removed by alternate treatments with pure, distilled water and a secret formula applied in exactly the same manner as you would shampoo your hair. The results obtained are unprecedented. Our treatment renews, amplifies and preserves to a hitherto unbelievable extent the original beauty and colors of all Oriental Rugs and Carpets as well as the better floor coverings of the occident.

WASHINGTON'S ELITE LAUNDRY SHAMPOO PROCESS is a natural one and permits us to guarantee unqualifiedly the beneficial effect of the treatment on all Rugs or Carpets accepted by us.

We shall be pleased to estimate as to the cost of any work of this nature you may require—NOW or in the near future. Cleaned Rugs will be retained by us in mothproof storage for fall delivery, at the very nominal charge of one cent a carpet yard per month.
